COLLAPSE OF A BUILDING

Falling Walls of a Brick Store

Inmates Buried in the Ruins

Nine Bodies Taken Out Dead, While a Number of Persons Are Severely Injured

A Whole Family Killed. The Brick Building Was in Course of Erection and Was Tumbled Down by the Gate.

New York, Oct. 11.—A seven-story brick structure in the erection of 22 Nassau street, collapsed yesterday during a terrific case of rain. Part of it fell on the street, and the rest of it fell on the street.

At least fifteen persons were known to be in the house, which was utterly crushed. A few minutes after the crash the shrieks of the imprisoned victims could be heard from the ruins.

At a check three bodies had been taken from the ruins, and the others were being removed to a hospital.

At 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon the body of Solomon Koonman was taken from the ruins. Shortly after five o'clock the body of Rose Koonman, aged 18 years old, was taken from the ruins.

The finding of this body a slight hope was entertained that the other victims were still known to be in the ruins.

The afternoon the last remaining members of the Koonman family were found. They were taken from the ruins.

DISSEMINATED VICTORIES.

General Booth, the founder and leader of the Salvation Army, and his staff, will visit Belleville to-morrow, and we have for them a hearty welcome. The religious organization of which Gen. Booth is the leader and founder, is one of the most potent agencies for good that has ever been organized outside of the churches, and its influence is world wide.

We hope that the city will give a hearty appearance to receive in the person of General Booth, who will be officially received by the Mayor, on behalf of the city, by other organizations, and by leading Christian workers.

The General and his party, accompanied by the Knights of the local corps, will arrive on their steam yacht at 5 p.m. and be landed by their band will march to the Market Square, where a public reception will be held. Mr. A. C. Wetherill, president of the local corps, will be in charge of the reception, and will be assisted by Mr. J. W. Johnson, of the B.S.O., County Organist Anderson, and for the Board of Trade, assisted by Mr. Thomas Ritchie or Mr. John Ford.

During his stay in the city General Booth, with his private secretary, Staff Capt. Milan, and Commandant and Mrs. Booth, will be entertained by Mr. Richardson, Manager of the Board of Trade; Mr. J. W. Johnson, of the B.S.O., County Organist Anderson, and for the Board of Trade, assisted by Mr. Thomas Ritchie or Mr. John Ford.

The Mayor will hand the letter to the Board of Trade.

TO BOOM ONTARIO.

Mayor Wainwright has received a circular from Messrs. Ross, Corry, Gaultier and Green, of Toronto, mentioning a proposal for the formation of an association for the purpose of making known the advantages of the Province of Ontario to the various visitors and tourists, and inviting the cooperation of the municipalities.

This is no doubt a desirable object, but the work has been done by the Grand Tour, the O.P.R., the steamboat line, the leading hotels and other common features of life. A meeting on the subject, in which all who have interested might take part, is, however, desirable, as by this means it would be ascertained whether such action is necessary.

The Mayor will hand the letter to the Board of Trade.

That Joyful Feeling.

With the exhilarating sense of increased health and strength and lateral natural calm, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, it is not surprising that the progress beyond the old time medicine and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered, but never excels by the well informed.

Kansas, Oct. 13.—The American Field club, J. A. R. Kellor, broke the world record at trap shooting at 50 yards boundary, in the 100-yard match, with Dr. W. F. Carrer. Elliott made a clean score of 100 kills, which is one more than the best record heretofore made, which was held by Kellor. Carrer shot 99 kills, which was a very good score. Kellor made itself almost without an equal in trap shooting contest. Carrer took his fourth bird, which was badly hit, falling dead, and he was the only one who was not hit by the bird.

Were prices as low for new goods, or prospects better for an annually brilliant display and lively trade for the holidays china and crockery trade.

We have advice that the Belleville goods are being packed, as fast as possible, and will be here in good time. As there is an immense lot, and being goods of a fragile nature, we must be patient. How satisfactory it is to know at least, that this store's stock is direct from the potteries in England, France and Germany, and not from Toronto or Montreal, and bolder, is made for the legitimate crockery trade.

TO TERMINATE THE WOE.

The Powers Are Negotiating to That End.

London, Oct. 19.—The Daily News publishes this semi-official statement: "A day or two after the last cabinet meeting, the British Government had been prepared to negotiate for peace on the basis of the Four Great Powers' (the United States, France, Great Britain and Russia) to the powers on a new basis of negotiation. Japan did not really object, but had not rejected the proposal.

The majority of the powers are in accord with Russia, and there is a likelihood that the others will assent. The intervention of the diplomatic and is offered to both combatants in the friendly spirit.

A dispatch to the Globe from Port Arthur, under date of October 18, says it is reported in native circles that a great battle was fought north of the Yalu river on October 18, but no details are given.

THE CZAR SLOWLY DYING

Important Affairs of State Are Almost at a Standstill.

SERVICES HOURLY IN CATHEDRALS

He is too ill to be present at the Car-ewitch's Marriage—The European Press Praise Him for His Love of Peace—Speculations as to the Future Policy of the Czar.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The correspondent of the Times at St. Petersburg telegraphs:
"The Czar has now taken to his bed and his imperial relatives are now gathering around him. With an organic disease such as his the continued decline of strength is one of the most alarming symptoms."

Later symptoms strengthen the belief that the Czar has cancer. It is feared that he is now too ill for the solemnization of the marriage. Accounts of the grief of the imperial family are heartrending. The society in official circles is very great. All important affairs are almost at a standstill. When the Czar arrived at Livadia he had not slept for forty-eight hours.

A service conducted by the metropolitan palace in the St. Isaac's Cathedral yesterday was attended by a vast crowd of people in full uniform and private dress.
Among the dignitaries present were the Minister of War, Minister of the Interior, Minister of Finance and the Minister of Justice who had just returned to the capital. There were also present the German Ambassador, Count von Helldorf.

Despatches from all parts of the continent show that the whole European press is brimming with articles on the Czar. The vast majority of writers praise him for his love of peace.

Speculation as to the Czar's future policy is rife. No two estimates of his character agree. Many of them are exceedingly unfavorable. The censorship of the press is reported as being unusually strict.

The Allgemeine Zeitung in Vienna suggests that the Czar is already dead and the fact is concealed as it was in the case of Emperor Nicholas I.

The Russian embassy in Rome received a despatch saying that a miracle almost could save the Czar's life. Prayers are offered hourly in the Russian cathedrals, and daily in the Russian churches and chapels of Russian colonies in European capitals.

Baptist Convention at St. Thomas.
ST. THOMAS, Oct. 20.—The proceedings of the Baptist Convention, opened with a devotional meeting and addresses on the personality of the Holy Spirit. Rev. John Dryden presented the report of the senate and board of governors of St. Michael's College, and in moving its adoption, congratulated the different departments on the strength of their character.

The afternoon and evening meetings were taken up with the subject of home missions. The services tended to show success all along.
The 19th day layings on of new members, baptisms, and the closing of the convention, the gospel in all churches, and preaching stations. New churches built new fields opened and many others striking tokens of success were given for much congratulation.

A Hostess Former Killed.
CHERRY, Oct. 20.—Mr. John M.
Granger, a former living on the town of the township of Beattie, chapel and fell the other day, and broke his neck. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss.

SUICIDE AT BRANTFORD.

A Carpenter Takes His Life in a Sensational Manner.
BRANTFORD, Oct. 20.—Robert Turner, aged 45, a carpenter, committed suicide yesterday by drinking carbolic acid. His son on going down stairs to the dining-room saw a glass on the table, which was not there the previous night. In the pass book was written the following:
"BRANTFORD, Oct. 19, 1894, 3 o'clock in the morning—This is my last voyage on earth. I have been tired of life for the last five weeks. God forgive my poor wife and all the carping of hell be put upon Miss D— and J— and Mrs. — God protect my little girl Nina. God bless my son Tom." (Signed) R. A. TURNER.

The boy went immediately to his father's room and found him in bed, life having passed away, though the body was still warm. A doctor was summoned, but it was too late. A bottle which had contained carbolic acid was found on the table, but nothing appeared wrong when he returned at night and no cause can be found for the rash act. The wife is in the hospital suffering from inflammation.

Who Was Hungry?

This one on a G street boarding-house.
A little girl asked if she might have a small piece of meat. A very small piece was placed on her plate, when she remarked:

"I want a piece to eat, not to look at!"
An audible smile traveled around among the boarders and an audible from settled on the brow of the landlady. — Washington Capital.

The Reason for It.

"Why doesn't he write?" cried a maiden fair.
As she typed with her white fingers hair.
And gazed in the mirror with a steady air.
"Can he be faithful?" Or's forgotten the night.
When he vowed he loved you—Why doesn't he write?"

Why doesn't he write?" cried a handsome youth.
Whose face was an index of honor and truth.
"Who said she would, and I, forsooth.
Have waited and waited, day and night, But no letter comes—doesn't she write?"

Two means.
Two servants sat in separate towns.
Two thieves, knaves, cunning and sly;
With midnight bell and midnight cry;
And they looked like regular thieves.
And they tore up some letters to sell the stamps. — New York Mercury.

The Source of His Inspiration.
Teacher—Children, now that the Fourth is so near at hand, let me ask you if you know what inspired Father Henry to write those great words, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

Bright boy—My pa says he must have been a married man. — New York World.

At the Prison House.
He—Can I see Miss Smith?
Servant (who knows him)—No, sir; she's out.

He—Out where? Out with some other fellow?

Servant—No, sir; she's out with you, sir. That's what she told me, sir.—(Indicates) Journal.

An Incident of Travel.
Fair Traveler—What does this mean?
The expressman says he can't find my trunk. Here's the check for it.

Haggard Man—The trouble is, ma'am, that you changed cars too often. The check and part of the handle has arrived, but the other pieces haven't.—Texas Siftings.

Mill Dam Burst at Cobles.

COBLES, Oct. 20.—The dam belonging to Alex. McLaren's flour mill at this place burst, breaking down about seven feet of a stone wall. The powerhouse was completely smashed and swept away by the waters along with a bridge which spanned the stream. Fragments of the timbers are scattered within three quarters of a mile of the spot. It is a complete washout. The loss is estimated at within $5,000 and $10,000. The dam has been in the course of construction all summer, and was for the purpose of running McLaren's flour mill by electricity. The dam was built in the creek. The work of construction was just completed the day before.

A New Gas Field at Cobles.

WINSTON, Oct. 20.—A new gas field about to be explored by the Ontario-Natural Gas Company is at Cobles, Essex County. The company are directing their attention to explore the Cobles gas region. Five thousand acres of the agent has leased several thousand acres near Cobles.

It Was Another Unlucky.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The statement that differences existed between Lord Kimberley and the Earl of Kimberley is officially denied, and it is asserted the premier and the Foreign Secretary are in perfect accord.

No Appeal for Intervention.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—On motion of Calderon Carillo, counsel for Mariano Polanco, in her case against Col. Hector, of Kentucky, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, have ordered the appellant's appeal, stricken from the docket on the ground that it had not been taken within the statutory time.

Warrant Revoked of Manslaughter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The jury in the case of John Warnock, charged with the killing of John Haddock at Wilbur, on Sept.
10 returned a verdict of manslaughter against the prisoner. The verdict was a surprise to the public.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Oct. 20, 1894.

Exports of wheat, (four included as well as both counts of the United States and Canada, amount this week to 1,010,000 bushels, against 1,317,000 last week.

On the local stock market 200 bushels of wheat sold at 26 for white and 25 1/2 for goose. Some 3,500 bushels of barley sold from 45 to 46. Oats—200 bushels sold at 25 to 26. Oats—Weaker, 800 bushels sold at 21 to 22.

A fair-sized lot of Canada barley was sold at Buffalo at 63 to 64 and at present there are few takers at this place, but the majority will not bid above 62 for the best. Western very quiet but held firmly at quotations.

was strong and gained 3/8 on the day's business. Oats were firm and 1/4 to 1/2 were all told 14 cars of sheep on sale.

The stock market, so far as this operation

Another close figuring of profits on gold shipment resulted on Wed. street. Corn withdrew from the sub-treasury of half a million pieces. This shipment is much presumably on the basis of Thursday's re-change quotations, for actual selling prices were made and the market held

Were prices as low for new goods, or prospects better for an unusually brilliant display and lively trade for the holiday china and crockery trade.

We have advice that the Belleville goods are being packed, as fast as possible, and will be here in good time. As there is an immense lot, and being goods of a fragile nature, we must be patient. How satisfactory it is to know at least, that this store's stock is direct from the potters in England, France and Germany, and not from Toronto or Montreal, and besides, is made for the legitimate crockery trade, which accounts for its better quality and appearance.

SOME HINTS!

Upon the Uses of Wall and Ceiling Paper.

TEN

Per Cent

Discount

Now.

1. The better grades of paper last longer, are easier to hang and can be replaced at but slight advance in cost over the poorer grades.

2. Whatever the color scheme, but little cheaper than ceiling paper and add nothing to the appearance of the room, in fact they more often destroy the harmony. To think of furnishing all the rest of your room (the floor, walls, etc.) your decorative (frank) upon and leave the most important part of it (the ceiling) without a particle of decoration or character, except that of the color, is a barbaric conception. Your upper wall and ceiling are the only unbroken decorative feature of a room. Furniture breaks the view of the lower wall and it is still further obscured by the hanging of pictures upon it; therefore let special attention be paid to the selection of wide border that shall be in harmony with wall and ceiling, and of ceiling that fittingly completes the beauty of the room.

3. Narrow borders are sufficient, if your aim is only to conceal the ragged ends of paper, but a wide border or fringe serves to beautify the appearance of a room and gives it a more artistic finish—makes it appear as if frescoed.

4. In making your selections, if the room has a north window, let some warmly appearing paper. If the exposure is south or west, cooler shades can be appropriately used. For dining rooms let the walls be unbroken, the ceiling a decorative finish.

5. Papers not so treated according to individual taste, are being used to have wall and ceiling decorations in harmony with carpets and furniture.
Use for sleeping rooms, light ground papers with a spot of color in the pattern. Floral decorations are most in favor for such purposes.

6. Whatever may be the room or room that you are about to paper, don't forget that the better quality of paper will retain their lustre long after cheaper grades have become dull and colorless.

6. Ten per cent. discount now.

LOOKS BAD FOR CHATTELLE

Step by Step They Bring Him Face to Face With His Crime.

CHAIN OF EVIDENCE MOST COMPLETE

Mrs. Macleod Claims the Victim, and His

Contents and Identifies the Criminal

Found Him on the Day After His Escape

Admits He Had the Articles Tracing the Murder.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Immediately it became known that the man who had been captured at Brin, and whose description told so closely with the description of the man with the white valise, for the murder of Joseph Keith, in Brin township was coming in on the train from Palmerston the excitement rose to fever heat.

When Chatelle was searched the most important facts were discovered, and he had purchased recent. Mrs. May's a pair of earrings, which were found on the man who had been captured near the murder. Mrs. May's maid, whose maiden had not been developed, told the police that she had seen the man

ST. JOHNS, Oct. 25.—There is more to reasonably doubt that the murderer of Joseph Keith is safe in Stratford jail. For an hour yesterday morning the Detective Murray, Constable Woods and several witnesses from London and Brin were crowded into the Crown

Attorney's office.

The man who had been captured directly to the county jail, where Amos Chatelle is confined. As a result of the evidence Chatelle will be arraigned on murder as soon as Police Magistrate

O'Connor returns from a shooting expedition in Muskoka.

The all-important black valise and its contents, the white necktie wrapped about the throat of the murdered girl, the parcel dropped by Chatelle when first arrested, the woman's garments found on his person, the brass and coin, were all identified by Mrs. Macleod, of Altona, who owns the property. This alone is regarded as sufficient to convict Chatelle, but there are other points that connect him with the crime. The walking stick left near Mrs.

Macleod's house was exhibited, and Chatelle identified it as previous owner.

The boy who gave it to the murderer also identified it.

Even without the identification of the cottons overalls which had not yet been developed, there is enough to make a lingering matter.

Mrs. Macleod arrived at Altona at 5 p.m. and after a few hours rest was taken to the Crown Attorney's office, where she was interviewed by the police.

In detail Mrs. Macleod identified everything brought forward. She is a very nervous woman, but her evidence was clear and convincing.

Others had worn the same dress, and she was quite positive that the black valise was hers. She also identified the brass and coin, and the walking stick. About six inches from the bottom there is a row of deep scratches.

The Crown Attorney's office held the trial, while the white necktie was held by the police. The trial

BRANTFORD, Oct. 25.—The trial of Mrs.

Hartley for the murder of her husband,

Charles Hartley, by poisoning at New

Durham on Sunday, May 1st, commenced yesterday before His Honor, Mr. Justice MacMahon. The case promises to be a lengthy one.

The prisoner, who was looking rather pale and tired, looked her story in her and in a clear voice replied: "I am not guilty."

Mr. Justice, Q. C. for the Crown, considered the statement of the case. He said the Crown would prove that the murder had been committed by the prisoner, and that she was guilty of
